AUGUST 2011

SUN	MON	TUES	WED	THURS	FRI	SAT
	1 	2 America is a melting pot. What does that mean to you?	3	4 RIBIT! Read In Bed, It's Terrific!	5 Read a book on folklore from a country you are interested in. Draw pictures to show your family.	6 Find a book at the library of a game from another country. Play it with your family or friends.
7 	8	9 Start a family scrapbook of places your family has traveled. Look through it often.	10 Use an old sock and markers to make an animal that you could find on the continent of Asia.	11 Organize a book exchange. Ask friends and family to bring books they would like to pass on to someone else.	12	13
14	15	16 Have you heard about an unusual animal from another country? Check out a book at the library and discover what it eats.	17 Look at a world map and have everyone write their names on stickers where they would like to travel and what they would want to see.	18	19 Design and color a new book cover for one of your favorite books.	20 What is your favorite song? Teach it to a younger child. Clap the rhythm together.
21	22 We can all care for the world we live in, so reuse and recycle.	23	24 Make a list of five questions that you would like to ask a child who is living Europe. How much do you have in common?	25	26 Check out a book on another country that interests you. Create a diorama to show places of interest.	27
28 Read one of your favorite books to a younger child.	29 Spend an afternoon cleaning up litter around your neighborhood or school yard.	30 Draw a picture of your favorite summer activity. Tell a friend a story about it.	31

ADD UP YOUR READING HOURS FROM JUNE 1ST TO AUGUST 31ST.
 Remove the card from the center of the calendar, fill it in, and return it to the Governor. You will receive a Certificate of Achievement for completing the 2011 Summer Reading Challenge.
